

All You Do Is Talk

Black Rebel Motorcycle Club

Help yourself, don't say a thing
Your love won't show
In anything at all
If all you do is talk
Sadly, I remain in need
Of all the things you say
But leave in speak
All you do is talk
Help yourself, don't think
Help yourself, don't speak
Help yourself, don't say a thing at all
You're lucky words don't bleed
You time the end of all we see
You say we're on our way
And all will be
Alone in everything
You say it's all we'll ever need
You've found an easy way
But still you weep

Alone in everything
Help yourself, don't think
Help yourself, don't speak
Help yourself, don't say a thing at all
You're lucky words don't bleed
Help yourself, don't say a thing
What love you show
Won't mean a thing at all
If all you do is talk
Sadly, we remain to see
What brings an end
Is also what we need
All you do is talk
Help yourself, don't think
Help yourself, don't speak
Help yourself, don't say a thing at all
You're lucky words don't bleed
