Unclear

Victoria Canal

I wish the stars could save me
From this pressure we call life.
I wish someone would go ahead and just tell me
All my dreams turn out alright.This long, unending journey
Is not what terrifies me the most.
It's the flag that waves at the end of the race..
Is it gonna be everything I'd ever hoped?Oh, why is nothing ever clear?
There's no simple answer here.
So I just sigh, and fall onto my bed,
Forgetting I exist, 'cause it's easier.These pieces form inside me,
A puzzle I can take apart.
But at the end of the day is there anyone who'll say,
"Yes, I do, I want to listen to your heart."Oh, why is nothing ever clear?
There's no simple answer here.
So I just sigh, and fall onto my bed,
Forgetting I exist, 'cause it's easier.Do I wanna, do I wanna, do I wanna go down this road?
Am I willing, am I willing, am I willing to sell my soul?
Do I wanna, do I wanna, do I wanna go down this road?
Am I willing, am I willing, am I willing to sell my soul?Oh, why is nothing ever clear?
I sigh, there's no simple answer here.
Oh, why is nothing ever clear?
I sigh, there's no simple answer here.Do I wanna, do I wanna, do I wanna go down this road?
Do I wanna, do I wanna, do I wanna go down this road?
Do I wanna, do I wanna, do I wanna go down this road?
Do I wanna, do I wanna, do I wanna go down this...
