

Haven't Met You Yet

The Harvard-Radcliffe Veritones

I'm not surprised, not everything lasts
I've broken my heart so many times, I stopped keeping track
    Talk myself in, I talk myself out
    I get all worked up, then I let myself down
        I tried so very hard not to lose it
        I came up with a million excuses
        I thought, I thought of every possibility
        And I know someday that it'll all turn out
    You'll make me work, so we can work to work it out
    And I promise you, kid, that I give so much more than I get
        I just haven't met you yet
        I might have to wait, I'll never give up
        I guess it's half timing, and the other half's luck
            Wherever you are, whenever it's right
        You'll come out of nowhere and into my life
            And I know that we can be so amazing
            And, baby, your love is gonna change me
                And now I can see every possibility
                And somehow I know that it'll all turn out
    You'll make me work, so we can work to work it out
    And I promise you, kid, I give so much more than I get
        I just haven't met you yet
        They say all's fair
            In love and war
                But I won't need to fight it
        We'll get it right and we'll be united
        And I know that we can be so amazing
        And being in your life is gonna change me
        And now I can see every single possibility
            And someday I know it'll all turn out
                And I'll work to work it out
        Promise you, kid, I'll give more than I get
            Than I get, than I get, than I get
                Oh, you know it'll all turn out
    And you'll make me work so we can work to work it out
    And I promise you kid to give so much more than I get
        Yeah, I just haven't met you yet
        I just haven't met you yet
            Oh, promise you, kid

To give so much more than I get
I said love, love, love, love
Love, love, love, love
(I just haven't met you yet)
Love, love, love, love
Love, love
I just haven't met you yet
