

My Killer, My Shadow

Golden Earring

Anywhere you go
I will follow, I will follow
Every time you call
I can hear you My killer my shadow
Wherever I go you follow
Through the busy street
Straight and narrow, wide and shallow, yeah (Where ever you go)
You make me forget all my yesterdays
You made me care not for my tomorrow
(Where ever you go)
My killer, my, my killer You made me understand, understand
All the way to the end, yeah That I'll be damned, damned, damned
In Amsterdam
Yeah, I'll be damned, damned, damned
In Amsterdam American poker, Russian roulette
Who's that floatin' underneath the bridge
When the lights go dim and the crowds go home
I can feel you, I can feel Amsterdam I can feel
I can feel My killer my shadow, my killer my shadow
My shadow, my, my, my killer, killer, killer
In the neon light, in, in the neon light
In the neon light, killer My killer my shadow
You make me beg, steal and borrow (Where ever you go)
Where ever I go
(In the moonlight, in the night life)
You lead me to a certain fate (Where ever you go)
Tell me now, don't wait, hesitate
(In the moonlight, in the neon light)
Tell me before it's too late Will I be damned, damned, damned in Amsterdam?
Will I be damned, damned, damned in Amsterdam?
Will I be damned, damned, damned in Amsterdam? (Where ever you go)
Killer, killer, shadow, shadow
(In the moonlight, in the night life)
Ooh, I can feel the heat in the busy street
(Where ever you go)
Killer, killer, shadow, shadow
(In the moonlight, in the neon light) You make me care not for my yesterday
You make me care not for my tomorrow (Where ever you go)
My killer

(In the moonlight, in the night life)
(Where ever you go)
My killer, my shadow
(In the moonlight, in the night life)
My killer
(In the moonlight, in the nightlife)
