Teary Eyed

Missy Elliott

2005
There will be no more room for y'all with no originality
WooYou're the reason I don't trust no one
And I don't love no one
From the places I've come
Sad songs I've sung
All the times I've been stung
For you bring the worst out of me
(Holla!)And I can't count these tears
I've cried
The emptiness inside
Left me so petrified
Tried to keep love alive
But I became too tired
'Cuz you bring the worst out of meEh, eh, eh, hey
I wish I couldve changed the way things have gone
And start life with you and I maybe once again (YEP!)
I don't know when or where, but somethin' must've went wrong
And all I have to say (Big shout out to Jay  indistinct)Is when I sing this song I get so teary eyed
'Cuz you get under my skin
Can't let you suck me dry
I was gonna marry you, have kids for you, stay true to you, live life with you
(Holla!)
But look what you've done to me
MeeeeeeeI compromised all my time
And rearranged my life
To make sure you was fine
'Cuz our love was on the line
And I became so unkind
'Cuz you brought the worst out of me
(You brought the worst out)This is how the story goes (Oop, OOP!)
For all those one's who know
When it's out of control
You work and you work, but someone gets hurt
And I guess that be meWhen I sing this song I get (Yeah) so teary eyed
'Cuz you get under my skin
Can't let you suck me dry (Oop, OOP!)
I was supposed to marry you, kids for you, stay true to you, live life with you (R&B)

But look what you've done to meEh, eh, eh, hey I wish I couldve change the way things have gone
And start life with you and I maybe once again (VIOLATOR)
I don't know when or where but somethin' must've went wrong
And all I have to say(When I sing this song)
Is when I sing this song I get so teary eyed (oH ohhhh)(Ohhh)
'Cuz you get under my skin (This is a sick track)
Can't let you suck me dry
I was supposed to marry you, have kids for you, stay true to you, live life with you
But look what you've done to me
Meeeeeee
