

Flank Nobility

A Telemetry

in a simple act of graciousness we mount our troops to fight engaging in the unknown flexing all our might have we learned anything but atrocity

can we find a grip
and show a new ability seems likely to none now we can flank nobility deemed useless and out of touch to flank nobility to borrow from the strictest stance and gain a wealth to share the brilliant and the arrogant will make a formal pair have we learned basically it's all a wash

can we heal the rift and reach the terms at any cost broadcasted lonely visions for all to band with to make the best the worst is how it stands - and how it gives
