

Slow Down (feat. Ty Herndon)

Brandon Stansell

Driving ninety on sixty-five
How we lever 'fore the sun goes down
It's just you and me in a perfect night
It's all that I can think about
And I don't wanna hold nothing back
But I don't wanna move too fast
I'm thinking we could slow down
Yeah
I'm thinking we could slow down
Hearts beating at the speed of light
With your head laying on my chest
I get caught up in those hazel eyes
'Cause you're the kind of moments I love best
I wasn't looking for the next best thing, No
I was looking right in front of me
I'm thinking we could slow down
Take all the time you need on me
Baby, slow down
'Cause you and I together, We don't have to be
In a rush to fall in love
So let's hold on to every touch
And just slow down
Yeah baby, slow down
Yeah Maybe we, maybe we
Maybe we could slow down
So let the world just spin around us
There's nothing left to figure out but
You and me
We'll set the speed
And just slow it down
Come on, just slow it down
I love it when we slow down
Take all the time you need on me
Baby, slow down
'Cause you and I together, We don't have to be
In a rush to fall in love
So let's hold on to every touch
And just slow down
Yeah baby, slow down
Yeah Oh, come on and just slow it down
You know we don't have to be
In a rush to fall in love
So let's hold on to every touch
And just slow it down
Yeah, I love it when we slow down
