Will I

Rent Motion Picture

So I lied and said that I'm okay Cause there's the way you are and the way I wish you were
And what you want and what you say you want are both different stories
I was standing here waiting, my hands and knees shaking for the one I thought was you
And you gave it away like it was nothing at all
Tell me
Will I ever see you again, will I?
It is what it is
Will I ever see you again, will I?
I should just let it goI'm a mess but I can't tell you so Tho' I broke my heart on the reef of your infidelity
I'm down here calling, my hands and knees crawling
for the one I thought was you Cause you gave it away like it was nothing at all
Tell me
Will I ever see you again, will I?
It is what it is
Will I ever see you again, will I?
I should just let it goI'm down here calling,
my hands and knees crawling
Looking for the one that was you
Cause you gave her away like she was nothing at all
Tell me
Will I ever see you again, will I?
It is what it is
Will I ever see you again, will I?
I should just let it go
Will I ever see you again, will I?
It is what it is
Will I ever see you again, will I?
I should just let it go
