Obsession

The Subways

One's hiding up in the bedroom
Another out in the yard
I waited for an ending
So I could make a start
And if it comes together
I'll only tear it apart
I'm seeing god in a liar
The mirror says who you are

I could travel ten thousand miles
So I could escape your smile

Another comic book ending
Another way to die
Can you hold it together?
Can you give it a try?
And give it hell for leather
And tell a beautiful lie
Ill make it worth every second
Ill make it worth your time

I could travel ten thousand miles so I could escape your smile
Holding out my blood red heart
Hold my blood red empty heart

I wanna feel obsession

I could travel ten thousand miles so I could escape your smile
Holding out my blood red heart
Hold my blood red empty heart
Holding out my blood red heart
Hold my blood red empty heart
