Turkey Crossing

Curve

All my friends are English
I heard you say that
And you stand beyond reproach
With everything considered
You don't think you've done badly for yourself
You should consider it an honor
I'm finished with you please be finished with me
All my traits are charming
I know you know that
They live beyond their means
You might consider that a failure
I've had it with you you've had it with me
What shall it be
What shall it be
What shall it be
What shall it be
All my friends are heathens
They like to know that
It keeps them safe from harm
And that just might mean everything
I'm finished with you please be finished with me
I've had it with you you've had it with me
That just might mean everything
