

Face In the Cloud

Family

Ric Grech Taking a journey

Expecting to fly

Not certain of things

That maybe could happen

Just reach out and hold

The hand of a stranger.

Leading the way to eternity. Wandering aimlessly,

Exploring new fields,

Discovering beauty

Never experienced

Mountains before

Reaching to heaven

Hiding the face of a

Girl in the clouds.

Tasting the fruit

Reaping the profits

Coming down slowly

from the height of my dreams

Collecting my thoughts

Remembering slowly

The girl with her face

In the clouds.
