Shari Ann

Bryan White

Shari AnnShari Ann, you don't have to try to make me blue
'Cause you know you can, it comes so natural to youYou got the power, you got the mind
You got the skills, baby, I ain't lyin'
They way you walk, the way you flirt
Your baby talk could get a grown man hurtWell, I might be wastin' my time
But I know I'm losing my mindShari Ann, you don't have to try to make me blue
'Cause you know you can, it comes so natural to you
Shari Ann, you don't have to play so hard to get
'Cause I'm just a man, but honey, I'm the match you never metDo you understand what I'm goin' through
I'm in love with you, yeahI'll be your rock, babe, I'll be your rock 'n' roll
I'll be the serenade for your soul
You're non-stop strong, comin' on
You can carry me, Shari Ann, come on, babyShari Ann, you don't have to play so hard to get
'Cause I'm just a man, baby, I'm the match you never metShari Ann
