

The Last Dance Massacre

Darkest Hour

A sudden gasp for air one false move
A blank stare is waiting for you
Try to piece it together but you haven't a clue
A blank stare is waiting for youIt sends an impulse out, desperately searching
Feeding off remains of it all
It sends an impulse out, desperately searching
Feeding off remains of it allAnother burning bridge
Another casualty paid in full
Just let it crumble down
And put to memory remains of the wasted yearsIt sends an impulse out, desperately searching
Feeding off remains of it all
It sends an impulse out, desperately searching
Feeding off remains of it allIt wouldn't be first time
It's all come crashing down
The awful truth is finally out
It's even worse than you thoughtIt sends an impulse out, desperately searching
Feeding off remains of it all
It sends an impulse out, desperately searching
Feeding off remains of it allFeeding off remains of wasted years
