Lawrence Gowan

Flew in from London
Only to shop 7th Avenue
They've got what she wants
They just don't get it over there
She's so attractive
And she'll do anything to stay that way
Money's no object to make a boy stop and stare (chorus)
High fashion model magazines
Runways of ageless beauty queens
Everything for the girl next door
Manhattan styles parisienne look Lipstick and cheekbones by the book
She'll never leave you wanting more
She looks so cosmo
Her eyes can talk to a camera
No imperfection
Protecting every man's dream
She'll hypnotize you
Right from her hair to her fingernails
In shadows and highlights
She'll make you burst at the seams
repeat chorus
repeat chorus
