Some Beast Will Find You by Name

Adam Torres

I wanna live for a dime
Free the skies, thunder inside my chest
Now and again, I wonder why can't I
Escape from under the weight of my regrets.

I wanna live.
A blood red sky,
And all the bad dreams inside my head,
Repay the debt (??)
Learning on my own feet, run till I (???)

Sing a song, a song that's on my baby
A song about the seasons changing
Born and dead, born again
Some beast will find you by name

Taking away (?) and (twine?)
Stretch our bodies out around the bend
And cast away, your (?) to swine
Watch all your fine gold turn slowly into lead

Sing a song, a song that's on my baby
A song about the seasons changing
Born and dead, born again
Some beast will find you by name
Born and dead, born again
Some beast will find you by name
