

If I Know You

Irma Thomas, Marcia Ball & Tracy Nelson

Well it could have been a Sunday
Or it could have been the next day
Or it could have been any day at all
And it could have been a good day
Or a very very bad day
When you made your grand arrival, I can recallBut if I know you
You'll come sailing through the starlight in the blue
And if I know you
There'll be something that you do
Nobody else could even contemplate, it's true
If I know youMadonna's in the bathroom
Madonna's in the redroom
Holy Virgin Mary, come to my aid
I'm sinking while you're swimming
Losing while you're winning
Everything i've given, you give awayAnd if I know you
You'll come sailing through the starlight in the blue
And if I know you, you'll swim
You could never drown if someone pushed you in
And if I know you
There'll be something that you do
Nobody else could even contemplate, it's true
If I know you
