

Not Living

Coal Chamber

I realize I'm dead, I'm fucked in the head
I'm not living without you
My life is a game, my life is a shame
I'm not living without you This heart has been choked, my life is a joke
And I'm not living without you
My life is alone, my life is alone
I'm not living without you You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me I realize I'm dead, I'm fucked in the head
I'm not living without you
My life is a game, my life is a shame
I'm not living without you This heart has been choked, my life is a joke
And I'm not living without you
My life is alone, my life is alone
I'm not living without you You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me You take from all of me
Let my soul kill
What I know to be inside you My love, my life's a joke, love you
My life is dead, dead I realize I'm dead, I'm fucked in the head
I'm not living without you

My life is a game my life is a shame
I'm not living without youMy life is dead
My life is dead
My life is alone
My life is aloneYou're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleedingYou're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleedingYou're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleedingYou're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
You're bleeding me
