Winter In the Desert Sky

Chalice

I decline April's fall
High time to refine and vacate
Still I'll miss such listless bliss
This path was the last recourseLucid hopes
Chaos merchants
Mingling thus
Socialise this conscience
Dream that dream
Spirits will employ
The slaughterhouse to guide you hereNexus to hollow lies
Jaded is the ocean view
Redefine your anodyne
The company profits todayI imbibed
Every drop to survive
To keep alive
Lifeless wills that I scribed
Elucidate
When the depths take my handBlinded by the moment I claimed this mire
A refuge from amentia and an epoch of desire
Labouring alone beneath the mirror of the sky
Transcend this foul elixir
The firmament is nigh
I won't concede I am a relic of the damnedI have scribed
Every word to survive
To keep alive
Lifeless drops I've imbibed
Elucidate
When the depths free my handBlinded by the moment I claimed this mire
A refuge from amentia and an epoch of desire
Labouring alone beneath the mirror of the sky
Transcend this foul elixir
The firmament is nigh
I won't concede I am a relic of the damnedTime conceives you like a tide within the ocean's eye
All the power of a winter in the desert sky
