Let It Lie

Dog's Eye View

Feathered, crowned and forgotten
Raised up and let down
You know it's been so long since we were anything
Why don't we let it lie?Think I'm dying here
But I don't know what I need
It's killing me to be here
And it would kill me to leaveFeathered, crowned and forgotten
Raised up and let down
I know it's been so long since we were anything
Why don't we let it lie?If I don't save you now, so me
Who's going to save you?
I don't hold you down, tell me
Who's going to hold you?Feathered, crowned and forgotten
Raised up and let down
It's been so long since we were anything
Why don't we let it lie?
Why can't we let it lie?You and I are a picture of a train
It's never moving
But we know it's supposed to be
So we try to believe
Please believe that I triedFeathered, drowned and forgotten
I know, I know I raised you up, I never meant to shoot you down
I know it's been so long since I felt anything
Why don't we let it lie?
Please don't let me lie
Why can't I let it die?
