

Divine Inspiration (Remix)

John Reuben

Ladies and gentlemen, boys and girlies
From upper class America
To minimum wage employees
Wherever you are, wherever you're at From Columbus Ohio to your point on the map
It's that kid John Reuben, mic checkin' one, two?
MCs get the boot when they claim to be the shoe in Nothing new Everybody wanna be a superstar MC, As for me
I find better things in which to place my energy
Diverse family, we up and at 'em full fashion
Been locked up in the lab mixin' up this contraption Smackin' the mic with verbs and nouns of life
I utilize my time right
To hold it down and keep it tight
And then decipher that I step through Yeshua equals life so I don't separate the two True peace 'n joy
More love to the connector
Illuminate your town as we hit your sector Everywhere we rock, everywhere we go
Every type of thought, every type of show
We got divine inspiration
We got divine inspiration Well, let me come into the track, yes, y'all
Bring it on back, yes, y'all
One time for the mental piece release
Mos def John Reuben will decrease Christ increased inspired lyrics hit your soul direct blow
How we communicate, graf DJ and break
Take a minute, now listen and dissect the intuition
More than ear candy but yo, I dwell in submission To Heavenly powers, hours on end I spend Lookin' for creative combinations to blend
Now that's a good combination
That's a good combination Everywhere we rock, everywhere we go
Every type of thought, every type of show
We got divine inspiration
We got divine inspiration In the place to be bringin' it out like
Like dots, I connect my rhymes to the spot
Warp speed like I'm trekky, to bang heads of block
To rock, to petrify, combust with mad rush
More cool than that J to bring that cold crush Transcend, runnin' through this whole scheme
Seen with raps, stay fresh, more ultra to the V
I'm clutching microphones and roamin' through them zones
And melodies I release serk ambassadors and vocal tones Shooting missiles from the lab, I contract, bust verbal raps

Ripping, torn through, and spilling into laps
Douse lyricals with divine divinity
To rise above the normal mediocre plain MC
Let me introduce 'cause I feel' I'm rev'd and heated
In a state of mass destruct MCs like they never existed
Seein' stars, like I'm spangle in your banner
Christian manner, be-boy for Christ, roaring like I'm Judah
Everywhere we rock, everywhere we go
Every type of thought, every type of show
We got divine inspiration
We got divine inspiration
