Cut Me Down

Kevin Morby

Birds will gather at my side
Tears will gather in my eyes
Throw my head and cry
As vultures circle in the skyAnd you're going to do
What you came here to do
So why not do it now
Oh and cut me downNo one, nowhere to go
Step out of my shadow
Take me as I am
A manAnd they're going to do
What they came here to do
You can see it in them now
They're going to cut me down
