Best Kept Secret

Jennifer Paige

The smell of alcohol, breathe it down my throat
So I choke cause it tastes so sweet, yeah
Bitten nails never fail to please me
They hunt me down, then they search me outNo one ever has to know
Forget my name before you goSo be mine
Oh be my
You're my best kept secret
Oh be my
So be mine
You're my best kept secretThe smoke of cigarettes fills the room right up
Hold me down by the hands you bound up
You grip the hourglass, I lick the tattoo
You're a fantasy but that's good for meNo one ever has to know
Forget my name before you goSo be mine
Oh be my
You're my best kept secret
Oh be my
So be mine
You're my best kept secretThe smoke of cigarette it fills the room right up
Hold me down by the hands you bound upSo be mine
Oh be my
You're my best kept secret
Oh be my
So be mine
You're my best kept secret
