Pop Goes My Heart

Hugh Grant

I never thought that I could be so satisfied
Every time that I look in your angel eyes
A shock inside me that words just cant describe
And theres no explainingSomething in the way you move I cant deny
Every word from your lips is another lie
A twist of fate makes life worthwhile
You are gold and silverI said I wasnt gonna lose my head
But then pop! Goes my heart
(Pop! Goes my heart)
I wasnt gonna fall in love again
But then pop! Goes my heart
(Pop! Goes my heart)
And I just cant let you go
I cant lose this feelingThese precious moments we have so few
Lets go far away where theres nothing to do but wait
You show to me that my destinys with you
And theres no explainingLets fly so high
Will you come with me tonight?
In your dress I confess youre the sole sunlight
The way you shine in the starry skies
You are gold and silverI said I wasnt gonna lose my head
But then pop! Goes my heart
(Pop! Goes my heart)
I wasnt gonna fall in love again
But then pop! Goes my heart
(Pop! Goes my heart)
And I just cant let you go
I cant lose this feelingA twist of fate makes life worthwhile
You are gold and silverI said I wasnt gonna lose my head
But then pop! Goes my heart
(Pop! Goes my heart)
I wasnt gonna fall in love again
But then pop! Goes my heart
(Pop! Goes my heart)I said I wasnt gonna lose my head
But then pop! Goes my heart
(Pop! Goes my heart)
I wasnt gonna fall in love again
But then pop! Goes my heart
(Pop! Goes my heart)

And I just cant let you go
