I Love/You Suck

Reel Big Fish

And right away, I knew when I met you
That you were crazed, but I'd never forget you
Well I've seen them come, and I've seen them go as fast
But I knew this nightmare was one that was gonna lastI wanna let you go, I gotta let you goWhy can't I just get over you?
You hurt me so bad with all the things you do
And I try so hard but I can't give it up
I love you so much, but I think you suckI gotta say, I never thought this would be such a mess
Things always change, but this time they changed too much I guess
But I know the truth, even though I lie to myself so well
This was such a good, good thing but you took it and you made it hellI wanna let you go, I gotta let you goWhy can't I just get over you?
You hurt me so bad with all the things you do
And I try so hard but I can't give it up
I love you so much, but I think you suckI know you don't care for me
And I know you're not there for me
I gotta find a way, but I don't know how
I gotta get up and get myself out
I gotta get away, I gotta get away
You drive me insane and you make me wanna sayI gotta let you go, I wanna let you goWhy can't I just get...
I know I gotta get over you
So many better things that I could do
And I try and I try but it's just no use
Now what am I supposed to do?Why can't I just get over you?
You hurt me so bad with all the things you do
And I try so hard but I can't give it up
I love you so much, but I think you suckI think you suck
I think you suck
I think you suck
I think you suck
