Double Disco

Kitten Forever

Take your shirt off if you wanna
Dance up on me like you gotta
Put your pain into it
Put your back into itDouble disco, danger zone
I'm out here all alone
Double disco, hold your own
It's my right to the throneI know the way to thrive
Dead beat in my chest, one thing less
I know the way to thrive
Over my head, over my eyesDouble disco, danger zone
I'm out here all alone
Double disco, hold your own
It's my right to the throneBorn to be a disco queen
Born to be a dancing machine
Born to be a disco queen
Born to be a dancing queenDouble disco, danger zone
I'm out here all alone
Double disco, hold your own
It's my right to the throne
Double disco, danger zone
I'm out here all alone
Double disco, danger zone
I'm out here all alone
