Strange

Joe Satriani

My heart is pounding
My stomach's inside out
I'm feeling kinda shaky
My mind is full of doubtAll I ever think about
Is fearing fear itself
Wish I could unscrew my head
And put it on the shelfYou know I'm feeling kinda
Strange
You know I'm feeling kinda
StrangeEverything is twisted
Everything is oh so tight
Don't know what I'm looking at
The lights are all too brightMy brain's about to crumble
Spill out on the floor
Sweep 'em up, throw 'em away
I don't want 'em any moreYou know I'm feeling kinda
Strange
You know I'm feeling kinda
Strange
StrangeClouds race across the sky
Day turns into night
Still there are the questions
No answers in sightEverything is twisted
Everything is oh so tight
Staring out the window
Everything is just too brightMy brain's about to crumble
Spill out on the floor
Wish I could unscrew my head
And kick it out the doorYou know I'm feeling kinda
Strange
You know I'm feeling kinda
StrangeStrange
Strange
Strange
