Shatner

Wedding Present

Wear something bright and turn away
Imagine girls behaving in that way
Why don't you pack your bags and leave?
Look here's another bruise I didn't seeYou can't say, it doesn't really matter
This isn't T.V., he isn't William Shatner
Oh, I've told you beforeThese days, you look so pale and thin
Wave down the bus and let's be rid of him
You've spent this night beside your T.V. set
Remember when you used to laugh at it, you laughed a bitYou can't say, it doesn't really matter
This isn't T.V., he isn't William Shatner
Oh, I've told you before
