Just Can't Get Enough

R. Kelly

Oh babe, I know you gotta go
But you know I wanna keep your love right beside me all night
And when the morning comes I'm ready to go
Again through the night, babeI just can't get enough of you, you, you, you, you, you, baby
I just can't get enough of you
I just can't get enough of you, you, you, you, you, you, baby
So good, babyThe way you give it to me
Baby, I keep running back for seconds
Oh baby, and the more you give to me, my baby
Is the more I gotta have it, ohI just can't get enough of you, you, you, you, you, you, baby
Hey, I just can't get enough of your love
I just can't get enough of you, you, you, you, you, you, baby
So goodThat I call you my Ms. Fix-It-Lady
The way you fix me, baby
You are my Ms. Fix-It-Lady
And when I'm fiending for your loveYou are right there
To give me my fix, Ms. Fix-It-Lady, ooh
And ever since the first hit of your love
I've been hookedAnd I, I keep coming back and I, I keep coming back
I keep, I keep coming back, coming back, I keep coming back
For moreI just can't get enough of you, you, you, you, you, you, baby
You keep me coming back for more, more
I just can't get enough of you, you, you, you, you, you, baby[Incomprehensible]I just can't get enough of you, you, you, you, you, you, baby
I keep coming back 'cause I, I can't get enough of your love
I just can't get enough of you, you, you, you, you, you, baby
I just can't get enough of you, you, you, you, you, you, baby
I just can't get enough of you
