Escaped

Steel Prophet

Leaving now, that's enough
No one here, to call their bluff
For so long, I've had the dream
If I don't go, it's a lifelong screamEscape! Is calling to me, I've never, ever felt free Escape! Life is wasted unless, I take this chance and see another wayAll my life, inside these walls
So much more, I've never seen
It seems, I would never know
What could be, what's my possibility?[Solo: SK]
