I'm just hitting my paper
Don't know what they aim for
I'm never gon' stop till I get to the top
I'm just hitting this money
Hitting this money
I'm just hitting my paper
Don't know what they aim for
I'm never gon' stop till I get to the top
I'm just hitting this money
Hitting this money
I'm walking out that liquor store, drunk as fuck
'Cause I just called my job in my album's been cut
My daughter needs some shoes and her momma's living rough
Dear Lord I hope you hear me 'cause enough is just enough
We ain't talked in a minute unless it's from these women
That only scream your name on your vein when I sin it
I'm sorry yeah I'm sorry but my daddy taught me pimpin'
But really fucking too 'cause he ain't living how I'm living I ride with southern black boys
Wassup my nigga?
Black and southern white boys
Wassup my wigga
Like the way his glasses off
Living off by some spinners
But don't take shit from pussies
So miss that kitty litter
I'm just hitting my paper
Don't know what they aim for
I'm never gon' stop till I get to the top
I'm just hitting this money
Hitting this money
I'm just hitting my paper
Don't know what they aim for
I'm never gon' stop till I get to the top
I'm just hitting this money
Hitting this money I dropped out of school and got a scholar check
I'm talking sex in co ass for a scholarship
Excuse me if she do me she just want money no damn pimp
She just want C notes not no damn creep
Hussling blood, said she's cool with cars

Smoking in my lane we just call it Al Bud
Marry with my children but I never had no luck
Hottest in the web internet call it spunI ride with southern black boys
Wassup my nigga?
Black and southern white boys
Wassup my wigga
Like the way his glasses off
Living off by some spinners
But don't take shit from pussies
So miss that kitty litterI'm just hitting my paper
Don't know what they aim for
I'm never gon' stop till I get to the top
I'm just hitting this money
Hitting this money
I'm just hitting my paper
Don't know what they aim for
I'm never gon' stop till I get to the top
I'm just hitting this money
Hitting this money
