Tomorrow Never Dies

Swan Lee

I can feel your heartbeat under your black, black leather
In your gateway call, boy take me away forever
Might be rolling the dice just I'm making you mine
But I'm thinking it's now or never
Be my rebel star and I'll sing you the sweet love letter
So how does it feel to be the one, one I'm touching
I like how it feels to be the one touching you
And how does it feel to be the one, one I'm loving
I like how it feels to be the one loving you
Let's live every moment like we own it
Now forever we're own our side
And it doesn't matter, where we going
'Cause tomorrow never dies
So how does it feel to be the one, one I'm loving
I like how it feels to be the one loving you
Let's live every moment like we own it
'Cause tomorrow never dies
I can hear a song in every word you're saying
Kissing you in the dark, the rest of the world is fading
So how does it feel to be the one, one I'm touching
I like how it feels to be the one touching you
And how does it feel to be the one, one I'm loving
I like how it feels to be the one loving you

Let's live every moment like we own it
Now forever we're own our side
And it doesn't matter, where we going
'Cause tomorrow never dies
So how does it feel to be the one, one I'm loving
I like how it feels to be the one loving you
Let's live every moment like we own it
'Cause tomorrow never dies
Take my hand and baby we'll go
Wherever you wanna go, you know I'm ready
Step away into the shadows
They'll never find us, Oh no, oh no
Ooh no
Oh let's live every moment like we own it
Now forever we're own our side

And it doesn't matter, where we going
'Cause tomorrow never dies
So how does it feel to be the one, one I'm loving
I like how it feels to be the one loving you
Let's live every moment like we own it
'Cause tomorrow never dies
So baby let's hold on to forever
'Cause tomorrow never dies
(i know this is not part of the lyrics but i freaking love nicole scherzinger i dont care what anyone say)
