

Death Ain't No Big Deal

Jake Hess

Some day when I breathe my final breathe,
The doctor takes one look and says Iâ€™m dead
Oh the truth is gonna finally be revealed, and Iâ€™m gonna find, death ainâ€™t no big deal

Heâ€™ll reach down and gently close my eyes, and Iâ€™ll be watchin from the other side Iâ€™ll be laughin bout how scared I thought Iâ€™d feel Oh Iâ€™m gonna find, death aint no big deal

My soul is gonna be just like a bird set free
Ill sail right past the moon up to the stars
And I know Iâ€™ll be amazed, when I get to heavenâ€™s gate
Cause I knew my way home by heart

Oh the lightâ€™ll shine much brighter than the sun
And Iâ€™ll be right back where I started from Aint no way to say Iâ€™ll feel
Oh, I tell ya children, death aint no big deal

My soul is gonna be just like a bird set free
Ill sail right past the moon up to the stars
And I know Iâ€™ll be amazed, when I get to heavenâ€™s gate
Cause I knew my way home by heart

Oh the lightâ€™ll shine much brighter than the sun
And Iâ€™ll be right back where I started from
Aint no way to say Iâ€™ll feel
Oh, I tell ya children, death aint no big deal
