True
What the man says is true
All he's been telling you
Paper trails align at evening timeWe flew
In from the Cote D'Azur
Wearing our shades and sure
We were good to go in our PeugeotWe die
Each day and every night
Follow the swallows' flight
And we drank champagne like it was rainWe tried
Tried to outlast the day
Let that lone drummer play
Hell, I ain't afraid of the choice I madeIt's true
All of this is true
All I've been telling you
From this rhyme it's the killing time, it's trueIt's true, it's true, it's true...
True, true, true...Helped by navigation so we went to the map
Half the way to China and we never came backHelped by navigation so we went to the map
Half the way to China and we never came backThat night
Under the vineyard sky
We kissed and the world cried
As we hit descend and reached the endSo young
Deep in our hearts we knew
All I've been telling you is trueIt's true
All of this is true
All I've been telling you
From this rhyme it's the killing time, it's true
All of this is true!
