

Fools Cry

Fancy

Once upon a time there was a love it wasn't meant to be given up forever free to shine.
Once it found a way in time and space turned our darkness into crazy forever yours and mine. Running wild far away
sailing through the night burning love
a star away
following the light. Fools cry and then they turn around and sigh for life's a lonely lieno way to lose what I found and silent rain is falling down - whenever fools cry
whenever fools cry. Love a secret journey
my crusade a sane and daring masquerade I'm holding on to you. Running wild
far away
a star away
following the light. Fools cry and then they turn around and sigh for life's a lonely lieno way to lose what I found
and silent rain is falling down -
whenever fools cry
whenever fools cry. Lifetime's another moment with you tender and wild then a tear of a fool shatters the crystal - why do fools cry ? Running wild
far away
a star away
following the light. Fools cry and then they turn around and sigh for life's a lonely lieno way to lose what I found
and silent rain is falling down -
whenever fools cry.
