Depth of Field

Dday One

Well, the field is wide open
With endless new lands
And infinite landscapes
For us to create, nowYeah, I want to live in another light
Yeah, I want to live
Here the walls keep closing
As we suffocate, but a door just opened, wideYeah, I want to live in another light
Yeah, I want to live
Ohh, we cannot let us die
We must prepare, prepareFor the time to rise and then
We'll face the truth
Ohh, we cannot let us die
We must prepare, prepareFor the time to rise and then
We'll face ourselves
We'll face, we'll face, we'll face ourselves
We'll face, we'll face, we'll face ourselvesOhh, yeah, I want to live in another light
Yeah, I want to live
We'll face, we'll face, we'll face ourselves
We'll face, we'll face, we'll face ourselves
