

I Found Another Love

Aaron Neville

You can go, go , go
'Cause I know, know, know
I have found another love
To take your place
Down down down came the tears
Since you went away and left me here
But up, up, up went my love, love, love
I have found another love
To take your place
Fast, fast, fast went the train
That took you to the arms of another man
But you can go, go, go
'Cause I know, know, know
I have found another love
To take your place
I thought that I could live without you
I thought that I would never love again
Someone came along with a love so strong
I forgot about you and once again
I feel like a man
