Waterworld

JÃ¼rgen MÃ¼ller

For those that know me
For those that know me
For those that know me
For those that know me, indeed I like to flowAuthentically raw wit it, see I augmented this industry
To submit to my will, all attempts to limit me
Can kneel, peel caps wit ill raps
Nothing convenes here till your camp gets smeared like papWhat you tryin' to tell me, skills never found me
Workin' for peanuts amongst jelly MC's, really ain't my steez
Peep game, I plot on different ways to make these styles
Ricochet through main framesThe day-to-day theme is turn these fake teams gangrene
My main vein's the only thing about me mainstream
You doubt me like the foes of Noah, embarkin' in this Ark
The soul controller, while fools caught up in this Del used to blow upYou're inundating wit the out-dated
See all of y'all fall when this cascade hits
Yo D, watch these watered-down clowns get drowned
And lounge sound broken down in Cuba tryin' to build ships off shit they bitI spit that major play saliva
Taylor-made for cypher sole survivor
Pay the piper if you plan to go inside my covenant
Better come in two's, matta fact come a crew to get you backExecutives, we wet you wit the hymns that leave you and your man
Packin', attackin' wit verbal cataclysms
Leavin' the average rapper drenched and grab a trench
Guard against my El Nino lingo
A labyrinth of keen flows, concealed within the singleThis is Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flow
Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flowThis is Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flow
Waterworld
For those that know meMy scripts consist of H20, hip hop and oxygen
I flip commission doctrines that make me Shake-Speare's pier
Upon this here tear I fear not
Killin' furious wit the superior onslaughtOn top of this isle solo, like Gilligan wit a million styles
To throw yo' way wit capital A
We make waves, causin' tsunamis to your armies
Splashin' like the cracken on clash of the Titans, writin' calmlyCall me Aquarius, each full page a new age
I'm on a crusade to ranter your parade
See 'Core is more than three-quarters of what this rap world secure
So this is Chinese water torture for MC's to endureAs I restore this reservoir wit my repertoire of metaphors

Step into the 'Core, better have your life insured
For supernatural disasters, I'm quick to cast a flame
To your astral plane, it's bitch-made, get played like CanastaWaterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flow
This is Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flowWaterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flow
This is Waterworld
For those that know meWhat's an MC without concepts
I speak easy comin' to offset your plumbing
Like leaky faucets, runnin' my dungeon wit aquatic contraptions
The fifth fold's a fish bowl, kick hard as contractions
Wit skitzo-memos closed-captionedYour lip's sewed 'cuz hardest to your fraction try to test me
You wouldn't tip-toe through Moses parted Red Sea, it's bound to collapse
So now what makes you think the sound of these raps
Is something different, I'm even pitchin' the kitchen sink wit comin' with itLiquefied rhymes rhyme wax
It's time for jack-fakers to vacate, they take up space
Like the Great Lakes, makin' a great case for me to hate
Paint a picture clear as Evian, raps on tap like Savior GloverUndercover, peeps wonder, why he became the architect 'cuz none love us
We spark the shit that makes the blood cometh
Wash away your blockade plus your brigade
Tryin' to sandbag clever words togetherThe weather, the storm, porn's poured on cassette wit architect sweat
In the cores of us form when he pass Tech-12's
I delve deep in this abyss, inspect hell
Tell a fallen angel to eat a dick if he gets pissed 'cuzThis is Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flow
Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flowThis is Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flow
Waterworld
For those that know me, indeed I like to flowFlow
Flow
Flow
