

Just Around The Eyes

Faith Hill

Just around the eyes that's where you remind me
Of someone I left behind me I'm sorry if I stare
But you must have stirred a memory and it caught me by surprise
But it was only for a moment and just around the eyes
Something in your touch took me back a long way
And made me say the wrong name I wish I could explain
But if I had to tell you where a small resemblance lies
It's something in your touch and just around the eyes
I'm over him completely
I rarely think about him at all
So when I look at you tell me, what should I do
With the little bit of him that I saw
Only when you smiled you could have bowled me over
A memory out of nowhere that came and went so fast
Don't tell me I still love him that has to be a lie
It's just something in your touch and only when you smile
And only for a moment and just around the eyes
