Build God, Then WeÂ'll Talk

Panic! at the Disco

It's these substandard motels on the corner of 4th and Fremont StreetAppealing only because they are just that unappealing

Any practiced catholic would cross themselves upon enteringThe rooms have a hint of asbestos

And maybe just a dash of formaldehyde

And the habit of decomposing

Right before your very (La, la, la, la) eyesAlong with the people inside

What a wonderful caricature of intimacy

Inside, what a wonderful caricature of intimacyTonight tenants range from a lawyer and a virgin

Accessorizing with a rosary tucked inside her lingerie

She's getting a job at the firm come MondayThe Mrs. will stay with the cheating attorney

Moonlighting aside, she really needs his money

Oh, wonderful caricature of intimacyYeah

(Yeah)And not to mention, the constable

And his proposition, for that virgin

Yes, the one the lawyer met with on strictly business

As he said to the Mrs. Well, only hours before After he had left, she was fixing her face in a compact

There was a terrible crash, (There was a terrible crash) between her and the badge

She spilled her purse and her bag

And held a purse of a different kindAlong with the people inside

What a wonderful caricature of intimacy

Inside, what a wonderful caricature of intimacyThere are no raindrops on roses and girls in white dresses

It's sleeping with roaches and taking best guesses

At the shade of the sheets and before all the stains

And a few more of your least favorite thingsRaindrops on roses and girls in white dresses

It's sleeping with roaches and taking best guesses

At the shade of the sheets and before all the stains

And a few more of your least favorite thingsInside, what a wonderful caricature of intimacy

Inside, what a wonderful caricature of intimacyRaindrops on roses and girls in white dresses

It's sleeping with roaches and taking best guesses

At the shade of the sheets and before all the stains

And a few more of your least favorite thingsRaindrops on roses and the girls in white dresses

And the sleeping with the roaches and the taking best guesses

At the shade of the sheets and before all the stains

And a few more of your least favorite things (x2)
