

Tell Me Why

Lafee

Im lying wide awake
My head is spinning over you
Dark of night
No stars in sight
Youre dreaming next to me
Afraid to close my eyes
Cause I dont wanna miss a moment of you
Dont wanna dream now
No dream could be as beautiful as you are
Tell me what have I done
To deserve something this beautiful Tell me why am I the only one your heart belongs to
Why me?
Tell me why am I the only one who own a place in your heart
Why me?
Tell me why do you love me, why is it me you want Before you came the days just passed,
But now Im soaking up each second
Within me a thousand suns arise
And Im praying for them never to disappear Tell me what have I done
To deserve something this beautiful
Tell me why am I the only one your heart belongs to
Why me?
Tell me why am I the one who own a place in your heart
Why me?
Tell me why do you love me, why is it me you want
Tell me why I deserve you and why I hear you say I love you girl
Tell me why am I the only one your heart belongs to
Why me?
Tell me why am I the one who own a place in your heart
Why me?
Tell me why am I the one your heart belongs to
Why me?
Tell me why am I the one who own a place in your heart
Why me? Tell me why I deserve you
Tell me why I deserve you
Tell me why I deserve you
Why is it me you love?
