

Do-Si-Do

Peter Bjorn and John

What can I do with this broken heart
Now that I don't have you I've got a lot of things to say to you,
But nothin' I can say out loud.
I got a lot of hurt to lay on you,
But nothin' I can do it around. Is that what I get for tryin' to be true?
Is that what I get from a girl like you? What can I do with this broken heart
Now that I don't have you
You used to be so good it was a work of art,
The way you kept me from breakin' in two.
I don't see how you did it.
You were a total surprise from the very first minute.
What can I do with this broken heart
Now that I don't have you You said it was a love and it would last forever,
At least 'til the end of time
You took my love and left me baby,
You broke this heart of mine. Is that what I get for tryin' to be true?
Is that what I get from a girl like you? What can I do with this broken heart
Now that I don't have you Now you're a heart breaker.
You used to be my little love maker.
You, heart breaker, are tearin' apart
All the love that you started. What can I do with this broken heart
Now that I don't have you?
You used to be so good it was a work of art,
The way you kept me from breakin' in two. I don't see how you did it.
You were a total surprise from the very first minute.
What can I do with this broken heart
Now that I don't have you Now that I don't have you
Now that I don't have you
