

Electro Shock Faders

Hooverphonic

Long black dress, Hawaiian shirt
Kicking pair of trainers, electro shock faders
Guiding your voice through your veins
Sick of all this working, longing for a sinking
Long black dress, Hawaiian shirt
Kicking pair of trainers, electro shock faders
Guiding your voice through your veins
Sick of all this working, longing for a sinking
Ship that rules the bottom of the sea
A bottle as a prison, not really my idea
Of a perfect environment, it makes you see
Everything's a blur, do you know what I mean?
