

I Declare War

Ghostface Killah

There was Tone Starks the Don, the face of a killer
The voice of the past and presence I speak thrillers
Rock a purple robe crusted with 24 karat gold
The chain is chunky like the neck of a monkey
Glass slipper, my wallows is made from lion skin
King of the jungle ain't shit about me humble
Rock a black panther hoody, nigga, made from panther skin
I'm black on the outside and black within, the hood superhero
The motherfuckin don dadada, the Don Wilson, nigga I do what I gotta
I'm a boss, them DeLuca's try to front on my skin tone
I left the fam to start a fam of my own
A Black Italiano big pinkie rings from Sicily
I move like the Don of the fam it's officially
Wartime Starky on some Black Avengers
Shadowboxing with killers that move like ninjas
I declare war
War on the DeLucas
Bullet proof jet planes, nigga you can't shoot us
Can't stop my reign of terror, rise to power
Tone Starks new king of this crown ya'll better cower
War war on the DeLucas
Bullet proof jet planes, nigga you can't shoot us
Can't stop my reign of terror, rise to power
Tone Starks new king of this crown you better cower
[Masta Killah]
I'm prepared to go to war for the battle of supremacy
There's nothing now to remedy this decision
The only thing left is the loyalty of the family
Cause once we establish the power they goin to turn sour
And use everything in their power to shut us down
We've come to far to turn around Tone
Got a new connect Don Stone flew his private jet from Rome to talk business
He heard your crime saga poem
He's looking to invest millions it's up to you Tone
This move can make us both rich
His crew is on, cocked and ready to rock steady
It's nonstop hustle and flow to own casinos
The wizard Tarantino
It's Wu Gambino for life you know how we go

Until the last breath blow

Mi amigo

[Hook][RZA] Born into a world where violence, death, and destruction surrounded him at every turn. Tony Starks took control of his own destiny and inspired to become one of the foremost leaders of the criminal underworld. Regardless of his will and the ability to run the streets with invincibility there was still those who chose to stand in his way.
