

Is It Me?

The Last Hurrah!!

You and me, tumbleweed.
Although you won't admit, I'm not your fantasy
I shouldn't have to bleed. Paralyzed, terrified
But what's the point of having shadow Valentines,
When I'm afraid of mine? Is it you, is it me, is this who I wanna be?
Is it love, I don't know, maybe just another blow...
From the times when you were truly at your peak!
From the days when you were strong and I was weak. Dim the light, dusky night
Let's pull the curtains shut and bathe in candlelight
To cover up my fright.
Violin in the wind
You know I'm here for you, though I am paper thin
You see right through my skin Take my hand
Be my friend cuz I'll be with you till the very bitter end
The very bitter end Is it you, is it me, is this who I wanna be?
Is it love, I don't know, maybe just another blow...
From the times when you were truly at your peak!
From the days when you were strong and I was weak.
