Poison Idea

I swear she has the best hair i love her ass I love her eyes I love her tits I love her thighs I like her smile she's so rad I really want to be with her cause she's the kind of girl i wish i had a fake i.d. that said i'm seventeen and itd be so good and she can tell her mom its me and we could be together it could be so good so good i wanna be with her i wish i could but i know it can't why cant it be just cause there's some dumb law that says she has to be at least 18

her mom says i am too old but im only 21 i feel so young im having fun and what if shes the one for me id have to wait till shes 18 to see if she and i will ever be thats not fair i say screw that law cause i dont care i think its wrong cause i cant wait that long if her mom understood then i could be with her i wish she would but i know she cant so i think to myself oh why cant it be just cause theres some dumb law that says she as to be at least 18 if her mom heard this song maybe she would understand maybe she might get mad that i am in a band i had this dream she liked it though i dreamt i saw her in the front row waving her hands up in the air singing as though she didnt care

oh it could be so good so good i wanna be with her i think i should but i know i cant why cant it be just cause theres some dumb law that says she has to be at least 18 if her mom understood then i could be with her i wish she would but i know she cant so i think to myself oh why cant it be just cause theres some dumb law that says she as to be at least 18
