the river

Edison Glass

These dry lips, they search for comfort
Will I settle for a quick rain or search for the source?
In the rain, life is beautiful, I guess
I know there's more, I long for something deeperTake me toHow deep and broad is this communion
Channel of amazing depthWater pulling under me
I'm not moving, you move me
I'm ready for this current now
Take me to the river[Incomprehensible]Water pulling under me
I'm not moving, you move me
I'm ready for this current now
And take me to the river
