Till We Rise

Valet Parn

Hold still,
The light of the night
Come on and walk inside
All over tonight
Feel another sunrise
Wild awake, you give in to me
Why, even if I fall
Every time I had feelings of my ownAre you blinded,
Are you blinded by the light?Wonder if I'm crossing the line...
Wonder if I fall..Till we rise on the edge of the world
Holding still the nightmare within
Hey, down below this corridor
As the actors kneelingWalking over you
And out on the run,
Watch us now, arising...Till we rise on the edge of the world
Holding still the nightmare within
Hey, down below this corridor
As the actors kneelingWalking over you
And out on the run,
Watch us now, arising...
