Dead Dead DEATH

Liferuiner

I close my eyes and watch the heavens burn
The earth is flooded with my disease
This sorrow drowns me, deeper and deeper Destined to walk alone, and probably always will Getting my head above water, has never been such a struggle
Well I guess it's just a case
Of pouring my heart out when no one was listening
If this is the end, then I need Jesus, for I am sinBut the hell just deepens within
I will sleep in bed's of fire
And bathe in pain
Swarm the weak
Destroy the feebleGlory be to God
We're dead, oh God we're deadGlory be to God we're dead, we're dead, we're dead
Glory be to God
We're fucking dead
