Blue Eyes

Within Temptation

Blue eyes just smile to the world Full of dreams and with fascination Too soon she saw that her hands were chained And pulled without any freedomIt's always the same They fear no way out I cannot break it I can take it no moreIt's burning me up inside Lost all my tears, can't cry No reason, no meaning Just hatredNo matter how hard I try You fear the beast inside It's growing, it's waiting Just to hurt youThis heart was hurt by the light And I see your world that tries to deny Now everything that I love has died Or has been shattered to piecesIt's always the same They fear no way out I cannot break it I can take it no moreJust to hurt you Just to hurt youCan't you see their eyes, what lies inside They've given up, they no longer shine Too soon they close with one last cry Before they turn to lightJust to hurt you
