

Echo (feat. Jonathan Mendelsohn)

Hardwell

Dreaming with no sound
Silent screams so loud
Trying to break through, anyway, to you
Your tears fall like rain
And I can see your pain
It's time to fix you up again
For your love
I'd take the sun from the sky
I'd steal the moon from the night
And I would never let go
For your love
I would climb any mountain
Stand at the top shout it out and
You'll hear my love pouring down
Like an echo
The world is frozen now
Leaves all on the ground
And though it feels the sun will never return
But up here in the sky
On this mountain high
Above the clouds the light still shines
For your love
I'd take the sun from the sky
I'd steal the moon from the night
And I would never let go
For your love
I would climb any mountain
Stand at the top shout it out and
You'll hear my love pouring down
Like an echo-o-o
Hear my echo-o-o
All my love it will flo-o-ow
From my echo
Like an echo-o-o
Hear my echo-o-o
All my love it will flo-o-ow
From my echo
